[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., September 24. The directors of the Fair Society, at a neeting held early to-day, decided to declare the first day of the fair off. owing to the storm which commenced yesterday and is still prevailing. The weather conditions are such that no outdoor program could be carried out. outdoor program could be carried out.
The fair will therefore open to-merrow at 9 o'clock, and the judging in ali
the departments will begin at 10 c'clock. It will be determined later whethar to continue the fair over to Friday or not. It is the first time for a number of years that the weather has interfered with the fair dates.

The storm which commenced yester-day murning has continued without cessation. Further than flooding the day morning has continued without cessation. Further than flooding the streams in this section, there has been no real damage, but reports have been received here from Colonial Beach to the effect that the storm there damaged the wharves, the boardwalk and the town front. The tide is very high. The new Baptist Church at Round Hill will be formally dedicated Sunday, September 29. Dr. I. B. Lake, of Up-perville, will preach the dedicatory sermon, and W. J. Phillips, of this city, will be the soloist.

Mayor J. P. Rowe has appointed the following delegates from this city to the International Congress of Hygiene, which is now in session in Washing-ton: Dr. J. N. Barney, Dr. F. C. Pratt, Dr. C. Mason Smith, W. D. Scott, Pro-fessor E. H. Russell and Miss Janetta Fitzhugh.

E. G. Heffin, of this city, has been awarded the contract for building the high school building at Bowling Green, in Caroline County, at the price of $8,000. Charles S. Rowe, son of Mayor J. P.

Rows, left here to-day for Madison, Wis., where he will take the full two years' course in agriculture at the University of Wisconsin.

The naval recruiting station which was opened here more than a week ago has closed after securing two recruits here, both colored.

The cavalry troop from Fort Myer, which will give drills and manoeuvres during the Fredericksburg Fair, has arrived on the grounds and is in camp. It will remain until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Shelton, who have been guests of Mrs. B. J. Shelton, in Stafford County, near this city, lett to-day for their home at Lonaconing, Md. They are finishing up their bridal trip. Judge R. H. L. Chichester has returned to Hanover Courthouse to con-tinue holding court there this week. The docket is thought to be the largest in the history of the court. The court was in session all last week. A num-ber of criminal cases have been decided, one criminal being sent to the electric chair, one given eighteen years in the penitentiary, another fifteen years, one ten years, one five years and one two years. There will be a number of civil cases.

AYERS AND STUART ADDRESS LARGE CROWDS AT ABINGDON.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Gate City, Va., September 24.—A great crowd was addressed here this afternoon by General R. A. Ayers and Hon. Henry C. Stuart. The addresses fully covered all the issues in the campaign, and a fine impression was made. Many Republicans heard the made. Many Republicans heard the speeches, although former Senator J. N. Harmon, of Tazewell, and Hon. Ralph Cole, of Ohio, were making Republican speeches on the street.
